Using FaderWorks may be great but setting it up is tedious. I think sharing this info can only help all of us. I hope others do the same.=

I spent a few days confirming these. They work here.
Double check to be sure at your end. There are many other plugs that amazingly have 0 latency.

I can't stress enough for you to check these numbers to be sure I was accurate in the procedure.
Enjoy,

They ain't the same animal IMHO.
Friend of mine's using a Dr Z and a Tonelab, and he's a serious, serious player and snob. When I was working with him I loved the DI aspect and usability/consistency and he loved the Dr Z (on a Hot Plate) for his stage vibe.
