DeejHi,
Yes this can be done with a desktop.
Fo laptops there are other magma configurations with PCMCIA card.
For any desktop though you can have another 7 pci slots available.
I can send you pictures of my magma.
If you decideyou want this I have to calculate shipping cost and you can pay using either IBAN swift transfer via bank or Paypal.
On paypal though there is a 4% interest.
Regards,
Dimitrios

Thanks for the reply. I think I'm really after the PCMCIA version for a laptop, I'm afraid. Still, I'll have a search around and a think....

I can't afford an Apogee, but I'd love to talk acoustic guitar amps and pickups with you. I just installed the K & K system w/ mic and piezo in my Martin...

I'll give you a call sometime when the studio and my kids are quiet!
