I thought all tracings would eventually go back to Africa.

You're right about this. However, if you think we've got a world o' shit to deal with now, you could come over to the house and give me a hand with the pooper scooper.....then imagine the mess that an army of great danes would create.

What's uncle Ron's energy policy? When great danes get cold they tend to jump up on the bed and cuddle with you, whether you like it or not..

;o)LaMont, my friend. I think you are misguided here. I respect your opinions, but I wonder if you have ever been up close and personal with a totalitarian state.....socialist or otherwise. I have seen it (Nicaragua during and after Somoza). Before you become enamoured with Somoza, I suggest you take some time off and go to Venezuela while you still can travel without a state tender (if this is even still possible) and spend about a month travelling around down there.

Regards,

DJ
