Need to know more about the wifes HP to see if it is even able to reliably do it. Especially with firewire involved.

Also how many channels of audio do you need to record.

If your using Sonar hardware like Presonus and TC are out.

All I know off the top of my head is that it has a 1.2 GHz processor. I'll find out more when I get upstairs.

Thanks!

I remember Justin saying he was going to look into importing Paris Projects into Reaper...if that's the news all I can say is excellent!!!

ewire. Both seek to have line outs.
The Firestudio seems to have better S/N in the digi output.

I dunno. I need to do this on the cheap!
