ys, etc., it creates a circle of musicians that wonder in to other things.

DLR Pick two local Detroit Jazz/fusion cats Gregg and Matt Bissonette, to play in his solo bands. Gregg Bissonette prior to playing with DLR he played with Maynard Ferguson, The Austin/Moro Band, Gino Vannelli, and Joe Vannelli.

Billy Sheehan, on bass, later replaced with Matt Bissonette. Matt played with his brother Greg in the above mentioned bands.

Gregg Bissonette since DLR has played with many artists, some included, Ringo Starr, James Taylor, Joe Satriani, ELO, Santana, Brian Wilson, and The Pat Boone Heavy Metal Big Band.

Another Detroit guy DLR worked with is John Lowery. John played on the DLR Band CD. That CD is the closes thing to old VH, and John also kicks some butt. John Lowery has played with rock metal artist, DLR, Rob Halford, Randy Castillo (ozzy's drummer) Marilyn Manson and Rob Zombie but he's also in to Blue Grass and Country. He worked with KD Lang, and he talks about his Blue Grass projects in his BIO. Here is the blue Grass connection: <http://www.jo>
