ght want to talk to Mike Audet before you sell your hardware, he is working on great things for PARIS.

Good luck with whatever you decide to do.

JamesJames,
I'll do that. Thank you.
RonHow much for EDS-1000 cards? I might want 2, maybe 3 depending.

Thanks!

rt.Im in Poland.

AndrzejDid have someone a Manual for my e6400 Turbo Sampler. I have get one of those and like to use the Adat Output with my Adat Cards of Paris Rig.
So it would be much easier, if i get a Manual !

Manual you can find here :
francisfisher.me.uk/emulegacy/EOS/

Thx
DanHi everybody!
Up for sale is what's left from my Paris stuff.
Got two C16 (one in brand new condition) and two 442 interfaces.
Watch pics below.
All working fine. I am asking 120$ for all plus shipping cost.
If you need more info don't hesitate to ask.
Thanks
John
Ron,

I sent you a PM. I'm interested in a few pieces. Do you still have som

t these and I will send them.
Also, don't know if you can repair the adat modules but if you can, let me know?
I have one that works but gets intermittent pops on the output side. I've tried replacing the transmitter and receiver but that didn't help.
Thanks
KurtHi to all !
I Need a Mec power supply board ! So if you have a MEC that is not needed or not working except from powering on, let me know for how much would you send this over ! Thanks !!Hey folks
I'm in Dorset, UK, and I need to either buy a Paris rig or rent one for a while to do some transfers... any suggestions..? dubvibe@riseup.net cheers Hi Richard, do you still have the 3.0 cd/response codes for sale?

Thanks,

Pete I've been holding on to a spare EDS card and have a 442 interface plus a couple of the 2 channel expansions (not sure if they can be used with the 442 or if they need an MEC).

Would that work for your transfers?

If not I am based in London and have 2 MEC's so could
