chrisl@adkproaudio.comYou guys are kidding me. oh man. That Smooth fader? How funny is that
!Looking back on my Paris experience I'm not convinced the PT/Paris/Sounscape model really is a better option than a full on digitalmixer with DAW control and a DAW. The mixer brings so many more tools to complete your studio.

What I'd really love to see is Yammy putting out a high quality mixer/controller that totally integrates with Cubase/Nuendo and VST plugs. OR SSL putting out a Soundscape system with a real mixer as the front end of it. Same difference really. Oh yeah, and keep it affordable! I think they're coming closer and closer.
