for what all you get.

I lost your e-mail address a recent computer crash. Here's a link to MP3's of my old bandmates.
http://www.itsaboutmusic.net:80/catalog/advanced\_search\_resu lt.php?keywords=Space&osCsid=3f159f95cc02a314b1298dda1b4f9495&x=9&y=8

You had commented in the past on how you liked the music. This is the first time their music has ever been available for download.

Scroll down to Space Opera. the first album was recorded in 1972. The second one in 1998. It's fun to hear this stuff and remember when we used to try to make a living covering only Byrds and Beatles material.
<http://www.spaceopera.net/>
On the second album, I'm especially smitten with Mother Nature-Father Time, Stolen Ground, Vieux Carre and Blavatski.

I'm in the beginning stages of working with the surviving members of the band with some new material.

Enjoy,

DeeJl have a Shiny 23c, great on fiddle, I don;t love it on crunch guitar, but I dog on a searing fender champ lead.

>>I really like a lot of the ideas that RP is talking about. I think a lot of what he is saying is radical, but I feel that it's needed. Our government, policies - home and abroad -, and politics are truly becoming more and more discouraging to me. At this point, I am more scared of Bush than AQ - which is pretty sad. I have never been a Republican, but I'd choose RP over anyone else right now. I do think it's important to learn more about all of the candidates views and visions (< if they have any) too.

money from us that they haven't earned and spend it on whoever elected them.
The upside of this is the interstate system, the downside is bags of money changing hands for construction contracts and no show municipal jobs.

I also think that it's hard for anyone who hasn't lived on the urban east coast, say between DC and Boston, to understand how much local politicians have to sell out to get elected and re-elected. There's all kinds of greaseball, 19th century, Boss Tweed, Tammany Hall bullshit that goes on out here that I just don't think happens in the rest of the US.

Personally I think that might make Giuliani a more effective president, he knows how to manage corruption, which is politics, pretty well. But our national elections are about theater, smug displays of vague fealty to the flag and bible, they have nothing to do with actual politics.
