>As opposed to that unplanned one we just had. ;o) Sorry about that, and me having an extra long day at work and all too. So seeing as how the router crashed, I'm going to do a firmware upgrade. There's some fairly major bug fixes I'm not running so hopefully it will smooth things out.

It should only be for an hour or so. Hopefully not even that. It will be done around 0:00GMT 10/6/06.

But to those who were wondering, no it had nothing to do with the server crashing due to bad UPS power as was the case a few months back. That problem is dealt with, and not coming back, and nobody here will be shelling out for a new router! ;o)

Cheers,

Kim.Steve Vai on anything kicks !

Metal album. Bon jovi and Brett Michaels doing country, is also lame.

It's funny and sad at the same time, this guy used to sell out arenas.
In his book Crazy From The Heat, he tells what really happened with VH and the reunion. He also talks about how he is constantly recording all different genres of music with people from all genres of music, from country, blues, jazz to motown, etc. That book is an interesting read, and a few good laughs.

It's too bad he hasn't been able to do much with his records since VH days, because some of the stuff is great. The DLR Band record has some rippin tunes on it. There is some really great playing on it.

-----000901040903070002090008--Thanks for the pop culture update, DJ-

I am not a bluegrass fan at all, but man, that song was... beautiful. Joyous, great musicianship. Wow.

But DLR was so weird. He looked and sounded desperate, kind of like Jim Carrey on a bad day.

If someone else was singing, I would check it out for sure. The thing they did with the old synth lick was just awesome.
