My terms of sale are clearly laid out here. You can accept them or not.

What is less clear is what makes you believe you have the right to publicly patronise me, after attempting to dictate your own terms of sale in private correspondence two months ago.

I can think of a few reasons, but none of them are flattering to you, so I suggest you simply let it go.

Live and let live is an abandoned and despised concept nowadays, but eventually we'll have to adopt it if we want to survive
