>The mfg of the burner may recommend one or the other. My liteon 8x manual recommended +R, which worked great - was unreliable with -R till I upgraded the firmware. Concerning data loss over time, I have heard complaints on forums about this because of the way the dvds were labeled - nonwaterbased ink pens leaking thru and press on labels causing problems. Personally, I havent had any long enough yet to tell.
